

The start of another season.

Description

August 1922: M McDonald, a member of Lord Woolavington's House Party, with a gamekeeper in a butt during a driven grouse day on Mannock Moors.

The start of another season, let's hope it's a good one!

I can see from Dickson's records that M McDonald bough a Pair of Round actions in 1922, perhaps this was their first outing.
