

12g sidelock ejector by Joseph Lang & Son – 28 x 2 1/2? barrels

Description

This Joseph Lang sidelock was built circa 1920 and is in beautiful condition. The locks and action are border engraved with panels of fine scroll. The 28? barrels are in perfect condition with excellent wall thicknesses and the top rib reads "Joseph Lang & Son, 102 New Bond Street, London, W" and is no.1 of a pair. The gun has a beautifully figured 14 5/8? French walnut stock and has a vacant escutcheon plate and a second escutcheon on the right hand side of the stock. The gun really is in tip top condition, opens and closes beautifully and retains about 50% of its original hardening colour and it comes in a leather cornered canvas case with trade label.
