

12g A&D ejector by Webley & Scott – 27? x 2 3/4? barrels

Description

This Webley 700 was built in the early 60s. Engraving style on the action is Webley's typical scroll engraving and the action retains about 75% of its original hardening. It has a straight-hand, 14 3/4? one-piece stock and is fitted with an auto safe, Webley's screw grip lever system, an Anson fore-end and Southgate ejectors. All for less than £500.
