

SOLD – Pair of 12g round actions by James MacNaughton – 28? x 2 1/2? barrels

Description

SOLD – This beautiful pair of MacNaughton round actions was built circa 1895. Original steel barrels measure 28?, they are in fabulous condition, and the actions and fore-end irons have around 80% of their renewed hardening colour. The guns have MacNaughton's coil spring ejector systems which work beautifully, the fore-ends have a Rigby-style lever action and they have the MacNaughton pendulum or swing safe. Engraving style on the barrels and locks is MacNaughton's fine scroll, with "MacNaughton, Edinburgh" engraved on the balls of the action. Original, beautifully-figured stocks include buffalo horn extension pieces making the stock lengths to 14 7/8?. Presented in their original case with trade label. A superb pair of guns.
